NON-STAINING COLOR FOR NATURAL STONE SURFACES

For delicate applications like natural stone and masonry, Holcosil NS delivers a non-staining, non-migratory color solution. Its specialized formula ensures flawless results without affecting the material's integrity, making it perfect for projects that require precision and visual appeal. The inclusion of reactive OH-polymer prevents staining in specific silicon based natural stone sealants, preserving the material's aesthetic during application.

Partnering with manufacturers, we ensure cost-effective, efficient processes—from batch production to cartridge filling. With over four decades of expertise and a proven track record in color formulation, Holland Colours creates customized solutions with unmatched consistency.
